

ACCOUNTABILITY & AUDIT NEWSLETTER

October 2020

SAIGA

"Develop Ethical Public Sector Professionals"

1

Note From SAIGA CEO Mathithela Russel Morena

"It is very comforting to know that the new strategy of SAIGA, which was presented to members during the February/March 2020 Roadshows highlighted the need for the Institute to change, be adaptable and embrace technology."

Read More

2

INDUSTRY INSIGHTS

Audit Offices Responding in Times of Crisis AG Kimi Makwetu

The outbreak of the global coronavirus pandemic has demanded an extraordinary response by governments around the world. It cannot be business as usual.

Read More

3

First 50 Weeks of SAIGA President Phillip Rakgwale

These past seven months of 2020 have been like a mixed bag filled with significant changes and challenges for the Southern African Institute of Government Auditors (SAIGA).

Read More

4

Work Anniversary Portia Morai

“

It has contributed greatly to understanding the Accounting and Auditing Public sector and understanding the Professional Body sector.

Read More

5

Women in Executive Roles An interview with Mbali Buthelezi

In this article, we are spreading the spirit of celebrating women. We would like to present to you as a leader who is contributing to building the society through your leadership role in your career in the Accountancy and Auditing field.

Read More

CONTACT US

