

Comedian Profile

SAIGA
Developing Ethical Public Sector Professionals

Tshireletso Phasha - When TT is not on Radio or doing comedy, he is the go to MC at Corporate events, entertainment festivals, weddings, social gatherings etc. He is also a voice that you might run into on radio adverts, TV promos and adverts as he is a voice over artist of note.

Tshireletso TT Phasha was born in Limpopo, grew up in Pretoria and later moved to Witbank which is where he started his journey in entertainment.

TT started his career at Emalahleni FM in 2014 doing the weekday lunch time show “Essential Adrenaline.” During his stay at the community station he showed his versatility as he hosted the Sunday love show, Saturday hip hop show, The top 30 countdown until he found a new home as the host of the breakfast show... On the breakfast show he managed to get a nomination as best community radio presenter at the Liberty Radio Awards 2017.

TT’s gift and love for comedy was very evident all the time he was on radio and he started doing local comedy shows in Witbank until he got the opportunity to perform at The Parkers Monte Casino. The performances grew and he started getting recognition from industry heavy weights such as David Kau, Skhumba, Celest Ntuli etc.

In 2015 he got the opportunity to open up at the “Mojokes Comedy Tour” for David Kau and Skhumba which opened up more doors for him as he then made it to the line up of “Blacks Only” at the Emperors Palace. It wasn’t long until he was touring with the likes of Skhumba and Sifiso Nene as an opening act. He has created his own show franchise called “TT and Friends” which he has already hosted twice in Witbank.

The man with the bold voice recently made a big move as he joined Yfm in May 2017 as the co-host of Krunch Time alongside KhutsoTseledi 12-3pm weekdays. He has been speaking to millions of young South Africans on a daily and the listeners have been enjoying his clean radio flow mixed with comedy in his approach. He plays a huge part in the comedy feature called “Stand up” on Yfm where they bring in comedians every Wednesday which is by far one of the biggest comedy features on radio.

In 2017 alone TT has made a big wave while starting to get national recognition, being a regular at the Goliath Comedy Club, headlining at Carnival City and the media has been recognizing his talent. He has had interviews on Metro fm drive show, SABC2 Morning Live, Daily Sun etc. On top of performing in comedy clubs and theatres TT has also showcased his talent on TV as he performed on The Dan Nicole Show (Supersport), Savanna Newcomer Showcase(-Vuzu) and Mzansi Comedy Nights (Mzansi Magic).