

Comedian Profile

SAIGA
Developing Ethical Public Sector Professionals

Wayne Stuart was born in Johannesburg, grew up in Secunda and has been there ever since. His career as an entertainer started in his hometown.

Wayne specialises in Comedy, Life Coaching and MC it sounds crazy yet somehow, they all work together.

Wayne Stuart started his comedy career in February 2019 and has never looked back.

His sense of humor is that of an Anecdotal, Heritage and Observational nature.

He has performed along side some of the biggest names in comedy in South Africa and has also had the opportunity of taking his work, to an international audience during lockdown. On the “new normal” online scene.

The love for the stage and making people laugh, is one of Wayne’s ultimate joys in life. And he would like to share this with the world.

Even though young in his Comedy career, Wayne strives for nothing but the best. Every time he stands on stage.

Stuart Coaching is a proudly South African company founded by Wayne Stuart who would like to see the best out of every individual worked with. The core business is Comedy, Life Coaching and MC to assist individuals and companies to reach their goals and full potential.
